Rosedale on Robson Suite Hotel Official Hotel Sponsor of Hana's Suitcase

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA: September 21, 2007 - The Rosedale on Robson Suite Hotel has once again teamed up with Vancouver's Norman Rothstein Theatre, and is delighted to be the official hotel sponsor of Hana's Suitcase. This play tells the story of the search by a Japanese museum curator for the truth behind the brief life of Hana Brady and the impact of the Holocaust on her and her family. The search is spurred on by the recovery and investigation of the contents of Hana's suitcase in 21st century Japan. Hana's Suitcase is based on the multi-award winning bestseller by Canadian producer and author Karen Levine. The show will run from October 14 to 28, 2007.

Through its continued involvement with the Norman Rothstein Theatre, the Rosedale on Robson Suite Hotel maintains its support of the arts community within Vancouver with a focus on socially meaningful projects.
